

Lunch with UCSB Women Leaders

Join PWA in this series of discussions with women leaders on campus.

Bring some questions and your lunch to meet PWA's special guest
Yolanda Garcia,
UCSB Assistant Vice Chancellor for Student Academic Support Services

Yolanda Garcia has worked at UCSB since 1972 beginning her career as an EOP counselor. For much of her career, she focused on designing services for EOP students. Since 1998, her responsibilities expanded to providing academic support for all students. This has included supervision of the Disabled Students Program, Educational Opportunity Program, Career Services, Counseling Center, Campus Learning Assistance Services, Office of International Students and Scholars, as well as Early Childhood Care and Education Services. She has served for the past several years as the Legends of China campus coordinator. In addition, Yolanda has contributed to the design and planning of the Student Resource Building. Her other areas of special interest are staff development and research.
