

Lunch with UCSB Women Leaders

Join PWA in this series of discussions with women leaders on campus.

Bring some questions and your lunch to meet PWA's special guest

*Martie Levy,
Director of Capital Development,
Budget & Planning*

Martie Levy has worked at UCSB since 1989 in the Office of Budget and Planning and currently serves as Director of Capital Development. Her area of responsibility spans the campus building and renovation program, property acquisition, space and facility planning, liaison with various University offices in regards to capital program and budget, and liaison with the campus Development Office for fundraising for capital projects. She started her career with the University at UC Irvine in 1979 as an administrative analyst in the School of Medicine. She currently serves as Co-President of Santa Barbara Hillel, has served as a Commissioner on County Commissions, enjoys volunteer work in the community, and is an avid fan of the Women Gauchos.
